To Whom It May Concern

It is with great pleasure to write a reference letter for Martin James Maggiore. I've had the privilege of working with Martin for about a year in the educational field. I have been working with many teachers and he has proven himself a committed and professional teacher and instructor among the rest of others.

At JNR, he is highly involved in designing and developing course content for clients. Aside from conducting the course he is assigned, he is willing to cover sessions for other teachers who are in no condition for teaching. Martin also has an engaging teaching style. He pays a lot of attention to students' learning progress and adjusts the content for them. Students get on well with him because he is able to exert a positive influence on them, more importantly, he cares about the classes he runs and the students he is with.

He is prompt, organized, and dependable as a professional educator. Besides, he is a dynamic and obliging person to work with. I can clearly say that he is a tremendous benefit and support for the organization. If you need further details you can contact me at my email oscar.jnr@gmail.com. Let me know and I will be more than happy to make myself available.

Best regards
